INDEPENDENCE DAY.

DOES anyone know just what is being done along the line of a suitable celebration for Independence Day in Cedar City? So far we have heard of nothing along this line. Surely we are not going to let our national birthday slide by without notice. Such a thing could not be thought of. Of course we will celebrate, but really someone has been just a little negligent, for the celebration should have been under way some time since.

We suggest that as a feature of the afternoon amusements we arrange for a ball game with Milford or some other team worthy of the skill and prowess of our local ball tosser, who are beginning to show up in good form. Base ball is our national game, and what could be more fitting or appropriate than a ball game on the Fourth?

We believe that it is up to the Mayor and City Council to take the initiative in the matter of a celebration, and we trust that the preparations will be gotten under way at once.

FLIES TO DEFENSE OF "NEWS."

THE editorials contained in The Record the past few weeks in relation to the discrimination of the sugar trust against western markets, and in relation to the prohibition question and the insincere attitude of the Deseret News on this great moral question, have brought forth a great deal of favorable comment from local people of all political parties and religious convictions, as well as a number of communications from different parts of the state, showing the rapidly growing sentiment in favor of a general housecleaning in Utah. There are any number of honest people in Utah who will not compromise with wrong doing under any circumstances, and who realize full well that they are being exploited by the sugar companies and other big interests, but are at a loss to tell which way to turn for a remedy. But once public sentiment is thoroughly aroused, the remedy will not be long delayed. The only adverse criticism we have noticed is from our pitiful spineless contemporary in the northern part of the county, who evidently fancies he sees an opportunity to curry favor with some classes by a grand stand rally to the defense of it, the person who wrote the defense of the prohibition question.

We are not disposed to waste very much space on the Times, for the following reasons: We do not enjoy talking at some invisible person thru the medium of a figure head editor, when we have no assurance as to who the real author of the spell may be. Of one thing we are certain, and that is the Deseret News is not the accredited editor of the Times. A paper dependent upon a number of different individuals for its editorial comments can have no very well defined policies, because when the next shift takes the editorial pen he may have an entirely new set of convictions. And no sooner will you get one line of fallacies nailed to the tree than an entirely new set of erroneous notions are manifested.

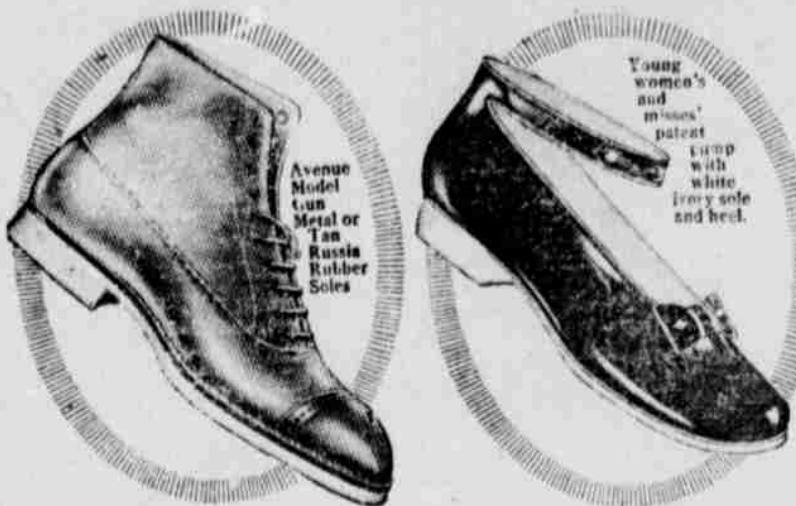

And then the accredited editor of the Times is not the type of man who can be expected to engage in any important reform work. His influence has always been given in the opposite direction.

If the writer of the Times editorial were honest and free from prejudice it would require no argument to convince him that the Deseret News gave the people the double cross on the prohibition question when the last legislature was in session. Senator Seegmiller of this district realized it all too well and frankly stated to the editor of The Record that it was impossible for the advocates of prohibition to get a hearing through the News or any other Salt Lake paper during this critical period. After having received fair promises from the News, and spending several hours of time in the preparation of a statement of their side of the controversy, the account was stifled in the editorial rooms of the News and not one sentence was given to the public. An inspection of the files of the News during this period is all that is needed to convict it of duplicity in the minds of all unprejudiced people. But some folks, such for instance as this writer for the Times, are so blinded by their religious zeal that they are content to bow in meek servility to their betrayer and lick the hand that smites them. And then turn and rend the man who has the courage to call attention to the perfidy.

SO VERY, VERY TRUE.

(By Strickland Gillilan.)
There are no idle words where children are.
Things spoken in their hearing carry far.
Producing fruit of evil or of good
To our great future human brotherhood.

The word dropped lightly from our careless lips
Into the fertile child mind seeps and drips.
And intertwines with thought and impulse so
It may decide the path some soul shall go.

The eager child mind may not know it hears—
The word may fall upon unwitting ears.
But nonetheless the record's graven deep
Subconsciousness a copy clear will keep.

So speak not thoughtlessly when they are by;
Your words fall not on sterile soil to dry.
Thoughts sown in plastic minds are carried far;
There are no idle words where children are.

Here's the Refrigerator that takes NO ICE!

—cost NOTHING to operate.

—is the last word in modern refrigeration.

—the last word in sanitation.

—the last word in perfection.

And the latest word is much less than one of an ice box with the same capacity with the cost of operating it nil.

The Iceless Gem is kept cool, sweet and pure by an evaporation process. Through this new patented process the evaporation of water is accelerated by a system which greatly increases the rapidity of evaporation, thus reducing the temperature to the point where the contents of the refrigerator are kept cool, pure, sweet and healthful by the resulting current of cool air.

It preserves the food without danger of freezing and frozen foods are known to be the cause of many ills. Food placed in the Iceless Gem Refrigerator is kept at the current temperature for eating and keeping—the constant current of fresh air circulating through the Iceless Gem Refrigerator, keeping the food sweet and wholesome. It keeps bread and cake fresh for many days in the warm weather.

Leigh Furniture and Carpet Company.

Let not the good work of cleaning up the town stop now. It should go right on until Cedar City is declared to be the cleanest town in the state.
